

Continuity of Support

An Easy English information sheet

Some people will not be eligible for the NDIS.

People who have funding now will continue to have the same amount of funding.

This is called Continuity of Support (CoS).

People will have the same level of support they had before the NDIS.

If people's needs change, they can ask for a review.

Continuity of Support

A Plain English information sheet

People who are not eligible for the NDIS and currently receive funded support will continue get funding to meet their support needs through the Continuity of Support (CoS) program.

People will continue to receive the same funding and the same level of support they had before the NDIS.

Sometimes people's needs change. If the persons needs change, they can ask for a review. The review will consider changing the funding level to meet the person changing needs.
