Arthur Creative Arts Program Information Pack

About us

Arthur Creative provides a variety of arts-based workshops designed for both emerging and established artists with disabilities. Our core programs are perfect for beginners looking for an introduction to the arts and can serve as a supported studio space for more experienced artists. For established artists pursuing independent practice, we offer pathway programs, either studio-based or within the community.

Timetable

The Arthur Studio Program operates on a school term calendar to allow some downtime for the artists involved.
